The Wisconsin Medicaid companion document for the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA)-compliant 820 Payroll Deducted and Other Group Premium Payment for Insurance Products transaction, commonly referred to as the 820, is now available from Wisconsin Medicaid. Companion documents provide Wisconsin Medicaid-specific information that should be used with the national HIPAA Implementation Guides. Implementation Guides define the electronic format and values for each data element within an electronic transaction. This companion document provides information for interpreting the 820 received from Wisconsin Medicaid. The 820 is the format standard for transmitting remittance information for health care premium payments. An example is capitation payments made by Wisconsin Medicaid to state-contracted HMOs and special managed care programs. Providers will be notified of the implementation of the 820 transaction.
